

Associated Fees

REDEMPTION FEES

.com, .net, .org, .biz, .info, .us, .co and .mobi Domains

If a Top Level Domain (TLD) is not renewed prior to the expiry date it will be suspended for 30 days and after that it will be placed into a Redemption Period. The fee to restore a TLD from the Redemption Period is $120 +GST. This fee is in addition to the renewal fees published on our website.

New gTLD Domains

If a New Generic Top Level Domain (gTLD) is not renewed prior to the expiry date it will be suspended for 30 days and after that it will be placed into a Redemption Period. The fee to restore a New gTLD from the Redemption Period is $180 +GST. This fee is in addition to the renewal fees published on our website.

.kiwi Domains

If a .kiwi domain name is not renewed prior to the expiry date it will be placed into a Redemption Period immediately following expiry. The fee to restore a .kiwi domain name from Redemption Period is $180 +GST. This fee is in addition to the renewal fees published on our website.

TRANSFER FEES

Transfer fees cover the renewal term added to the domain name during transfer. All Top Level Domains (TLDs) have a mandatory one year renewal term added during the Registrar Transfer process. .nz domain names can be transferred for free with no renewal term added during the registrar transfer as long as the domain name is not expired or due to expire within one month. There is one exception to the above, for .uk domains a $39 + GST an Admin Fee applies to transfers when the domain is not within 6 months of expiry. No renewal term is added.

CHANGE OF REGISTRANT FEE FOR .au DOMAINS

When an .au domain name is transferred from one Registrant to a new Registrant this results in a new two year domain name licence being issued to the new Registrant. The fee for changing the Registrant for an .au domain name, including the new two year licence, is $140 +GST per domain name.